5 MASONIC CENTER
1299 Grow Avenue NW

William Renton Lodge #29 of the Free & Accepted Masons of Washington continues a Masonic presence on Bainbridge Island which began in the mid 1800s with Kane Lodge. The local Masons purchased the land on High School Road and built a new lodge in 1957, after the original lodge building near Blakeley Mill burned down in an accidental fire. The Masonic Center is currently used for fundraising activities for local non-profits, various scouting organizations, and private events

4 FILIPINO-AMERICAN HALL
7566 NE High School Road

In the 1920s and 30's, many Filipino immigrants came to work on the island's thriving berry farms. When World War II forced Japanese families to leave their properties, Filipino farmhands stepped up to manage the farms. The hall, purchased by the Filipino Farmers Association and built partly of wood salvaged from the Port Blakeley Mill, has served as a social center since 1943. Remodeled in the 1990's, the Filipino-American Hall is one of four island sites listed on the National Register of Historic Places.

1 THE BOATHOUSE
281 Brien Drive SE

One of the region's most stunning event venues, the Stan Pocock Rowing Center offers sweeping views of Waterfront Park and Eagle Harbor. Home to Bainbridge Island Rowing, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit serving rowers ages 13 to 90, this vibrant space fosters wellness, connection, and community—welcoming all through rowing programs, rentals, and shared experiences.

2 STICKS & STONES FARM
7190 NE Eagle Harbor Drive

Sticks and Stones Farm is the family farm of Kayla Lightfoot and Ethan Currier, established in 2024 on a historic three-acre parcel at the head of Eagle Harbor. The couple is raising four girls, a herd of goats, a flock of chickens, a few ducks, and the lovely dog Ketch.

3 AMERICAN LEGION HALL
7880 NE Bucklin Hill Road

In 1949, the eight-year-old American Legion purchased the South Wing of Barracks Bldg. #62 of the Fort Ward Naval Radio Station and shipped it to Bucklin Hill - all for $960. It now sits on land donated by the parents of Colin Hyde, who died in World War I and for whom the Post is named. Besides Post Legion events, the hall is used for various civic activities.
